SENIOR RETREAT

The Senior Retreat was a defining experience for members of the Class of 2000. For two days, seniors gathered at the K C Abbey Camp near Covington, Louisiana, for a period of intense prayer, introspection, sharing, and setting goals. Through prayer, recreation, and shared experiences, the seniors grew closer to one another and to God.

SAILING

is more than a sport, it's an attitude and a way of life. For head coach Mrs. Jennifer Schmidt and the members of the 2000 Rock-a-Chaw sailing team, hard work and positive attitude paid off in May when they traveled to San Diego, California, to compete in the Mallory Cup Junior National Championships for the second consecutive year.

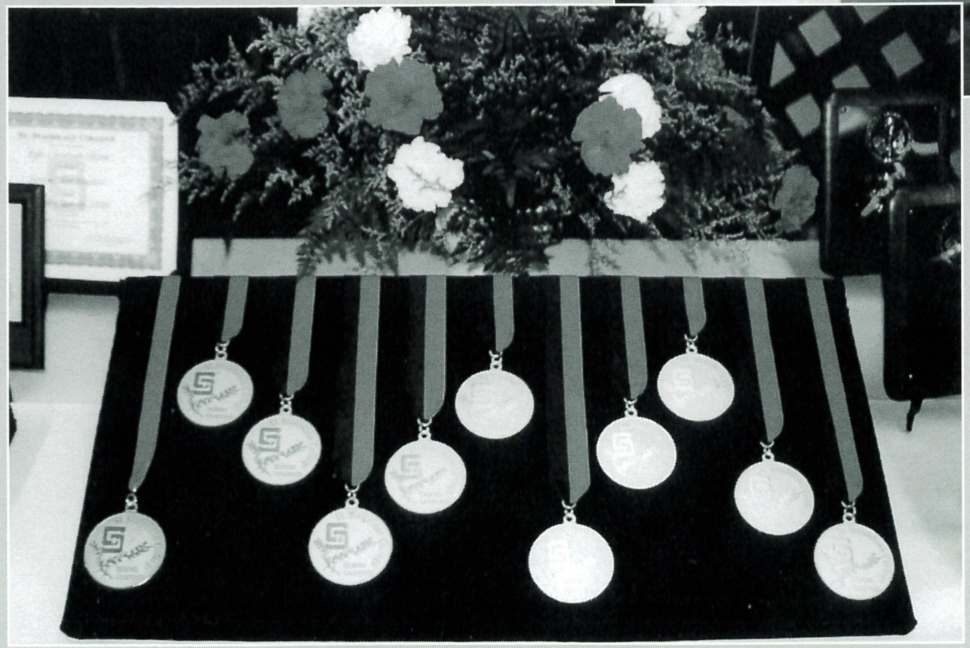
Best In . . .

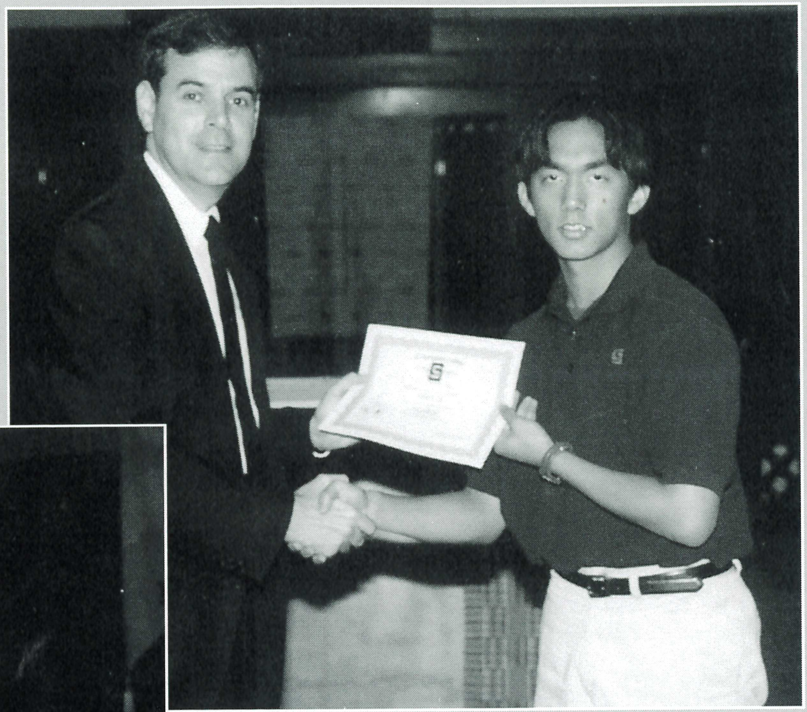
Each year, St. Stanislaus honors those students who have excelled in various clubs and organizations around campus. This year Kunal Patel earns Best In Newspaper.

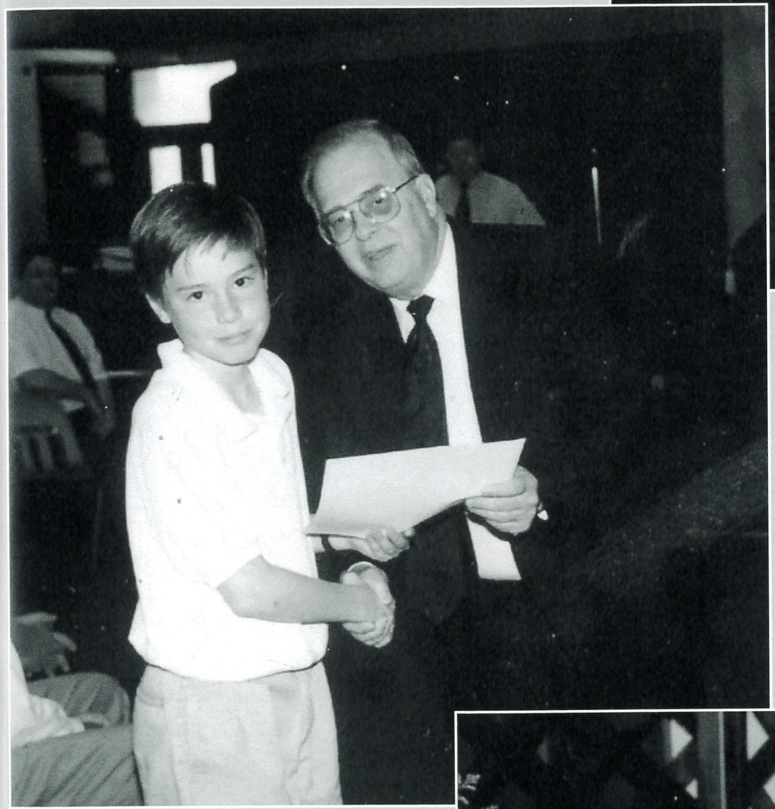
Brither Ronald Hingle presents Will Harris the certificate for Best In Magic Club.



Students also look forward to receiving other awards, such as these medals, which are presented to those who graduate with honors.

Albert Li receives recognition for Best in Yearbook.





Brother Ronald Talbot presents Andrew Waterman a certificate for his achievement: Best In Math Counts.

SSC recognizes students for academic acheivement, too. Seniors who receive top honors in specific classes earn the "Excellence In" plaques you see here. They are presented at an awards ceremony prior to graduation.

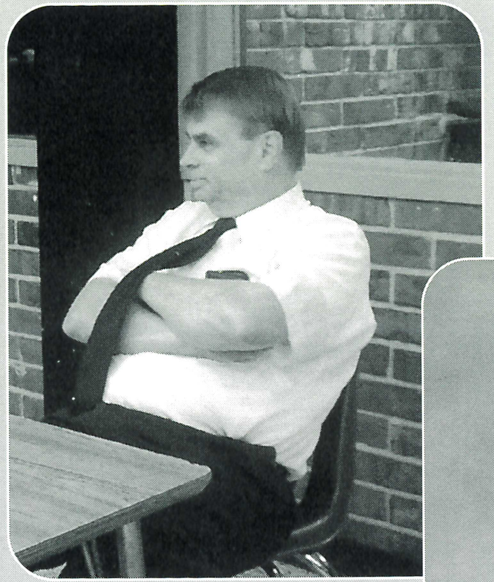
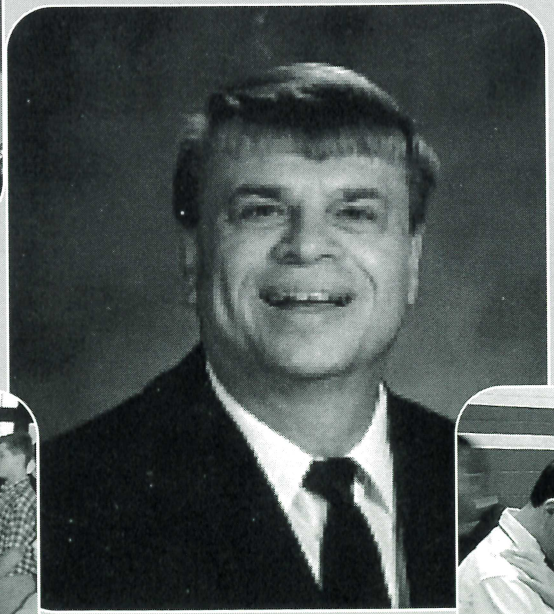
Star Student/Star Teacher



By merit of the highest ACT score, SSC honors one Star Student every year who, in turn, honors one teacher whom he feels has made a significant contribution to his education.

This year, Edward Flores was named Star Student. Edward then named Brother Malcom Melcher, Star Teacher for the 1999-2000 school year. Brother Malcolm teaches chemistry and religion.



Congratulations, Ed and Brother Malcolm!

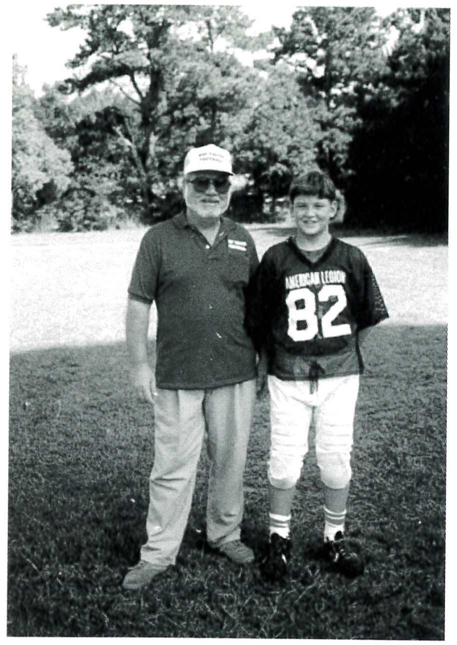
When God sent you to is our hearts were filled with joy; seems like only yesterday you were a baby boy.



If only we could hold onto yesteryear because we love you so, but we have given you roots and wings and now we must let go.

You have grown in to a young man of character and have always been a special son, so fly like an eagle, your life has just begun.

God Bless You and Keep You Safe
Good Luck at L.S.U.

Happiness comes and goes
like the weather...
Joy runs deep. It is never superficial.
Joy leads us to celebrate
that in good times and bad,
we belong to God."*
